

CURRICULUM VITAE
(Expanded Curriculum Vitae -- "Template" with Examples
These CVs are usually 6-10 pages long)

Name

Occupation description (ex. Geochemist)

Present title (ex. Assistant Scientist)

Department

Location

Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution

Woods Hole, MA 02543

Telephone:

Fax:

E-mail:

Home Page:

EDUCATION:

B.A.:

Ph.D.:

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

Start with current position and list dates (list separately when Tenure was received).

AWARDS:

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

ex: Member, Geochemical Society, 1982-1993.

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

ex: Studies of scavenging and particle cycling processes using man-made and naturally occurring radionuclides.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

WHOI (Non Education Related):

ex: WHOI Isotope Users Committee, 1990 to present.

Outside WHOI (Other than Attendance at Society/National Meetings):

ex: Invited expert IAEA Alternative Radioanalytical Techniques, Monaco, June 6-9, 1989.

PARTICIPATION IN EDUCATION PROGRAM:

ex: Seminar in Marine Chemistry — Spring Semester (1988, 1989, 1990, 1991).

ex: Student Cruise Participation/Training R/V WEATHERBIRD: Kathy Barbeau, Sarah Herbelin, Orjan Gustafsson (1993); Elizabeth Minor, Lihini Aluwihare (1994).

SUPERVISION AT WHOI:

Include all lab technicians, post-docs, students, summer student fellows, foreign visitors, etc., and the years they were under your supervision.

CRUISE PARTICIPATION:

ex: July 1981: R/V NEW HORIZON; San Diego to San Diego.

PAPERS IN REFEREED JOURNALS AND BOOKS: (NO MANUSCRIPTS IN PREP)

In Press:

Manuscripts Submitted:

OTHER PUBLICATIONS: (unreviewed media, Oceanus, etc.)

PUBLISHED ABSTRACTS:

PAPERS PRESENTED AT MEETINGS AND INVITED LECTURES: