

Ocean Acidification PI Workshop 2013: Logistics

Planning your trip

Getting to the meeting

The meeting will be at the Gallaudet University's Kellogg Conference Center, 800 Florida Ave., NE, Washington, DC. Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA) is the closest airport and on the Metro line, which will take you directly to the meeting venue. To reach either the Conference Center and its hotel or the Courtyard Washington DC/US Capitol hotel from DCA, take the Red Line towards Silver Spring and Glenmont, but get off at the NoMa -- Gallaudet U. stop.

The meeting will begin Wednesday morning, September 18, at 8:45 am and run until Friday, September 20, at 4:00 pm. Please plan your travel accordingly.

Day parking

The parking garage for free day parking for commuters is located directly behind the Kellogg Conference Center hotel. If you look on the campus map (linked on the top right of this web page) on the top left there is a "P" - that is the parking garage.

Hotel

Unlike many other OCB meetings, regular attendees are responsible for reserving their own hotel for the OAPI 2013 meeting!

We have room blocks reserved at two hotels. Both hotels are $209 plus 14.5 % room tax per night. In addition the Courtyard Marriott has a parking fee of $33 per night.

~~Room blocks will be released August 17, 2013.
