

Deep Submergence Laboratory

Related WHOI News Releases

WHOI news releases highlighting DSL people, vehicles and/or projects.

June 21, 2007

Explorers to Use New Robotic Vehicles to Hunt for Life and Hydrothermal Vents on Arctic Seafloor

Researchers will probe the Gakkel Ridge during expedition that begins on July 1.

Source: Media Relations

July 14, 2006

Undersea Vehicles to Study Formation of Gold and Other Precious Metals On the Pacific Ocean Floor

Scientists will explore the seafloor near Papua New Guinea in the western Pacific Ocean later this month, investigating hydrothermal vents and the formation of mineral deposits containing gold and other precious minerals with industrial value.

Source: Media Relations

July 11, 2006

Woods Hole Engineering Team from Titanic Discovery to be Honored

Jason Jr. engineers honored 20 years after Titanic exploration for their efforts to advance the routine use of remotely operated vehicles and fiber optics in the deep sea.

Source: Media Relations

February 2, 2006

Autonomous Underwater Vehicle Maps Ancient Greek Shipwreck

After lying hidden for centuries off the coast of Greece, a 4th century B.C. merchant ship and its cargo has been discovered and surveyed by a robotic underwater vehicle that accomplished in two days what it would take divers years to do.

Source: Media Relations

December 5, 2005

New Technology for New Exploration of Hydrothermal Vents

Advances in undersea imaging systems, the development of new vehicles and instruments, and improved seafloor mapping capabilities have enabled scientists to explore areas of the deep sea in unprecedented detail.

Source: Media Relations

Last updated: May 23, 2008

Copyright ©2007 Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, All Rights Reserved.

Mail: Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, 266 Woods Hole Road, Woods Hole, MA 02543, USA.

E-Contact: info@whoi.edu; press relations: media@whoi.edu, tel. (508) 457-2000

Problems or questions about the site, please contact webdev@whoi.edu