

Dear WFB: I want to adopt a child. I would consider domestic adoption, international adoption, adopting an older child, a child of a different ethnicity, or a child with special needs. However, I don't have any idea how to begin. Please help me get started – adoption may be my dream come true!

Dear Dream Come True: Adoption is a wonderful option for many people who want a child. And WFB is prepared to help you learn more and direct you to resources that will help.

You can call one of our expert counselors and speak confidentially and at no cost about adoption by calling 1-800-328-4071. Or you may visit our website at www.wfbenefits.com. WFB can refer you to nationally recognized adoption resources. WFB will also send you free WFB NotesSM on adoption, as well as our comprehensive guidebook on adoption.

Through all of these resources, you'll learn about adoption agencies, adoption attorneys, home studies, support groups for adoptive parents, costs involved in adoption, and much more. Don't wait: make your dream start to take shape by contacting WFB today!

(P.S. And when you have become an adoptive parent, don't forget to call WFB back if you need to find child care!)
