

Managing Visitor Use in Coastal and Marine Protected Areas
A Coastal Decision Maker Workshop
Cape Cod • April, 2004

DAY 1
8:15	Registration and Continental Breakfast – Barnstable Room
9:00	Welcome, Introductions, and Overview – Barnstable Room
9:30	Human Dimensions of Coastal and Marine Management
10:00	Overview of Visitor-Use Planning and Management
10:30	BREAK
10:45	Problem Awareness I: Local/Regional Issue Identification
11:30	Problem Awareness II: Example Scenario Issue Identification
12:00	LUNCH – Sandwich Room
1:00	Negotiated Rule-Making for Off-Road Vehicle Use Maria Burks, Superintendent Cape Cod National Seashore, National Park Service
1:30	Problem Specification: What Exactly is the Problem? – Barnstable Room
2:00	Indicators and Standards
2:30	Monitoring: Gauging Impacts and Evaluating Management Effectiveness
3:00	BREAK
3:15	Working through the Process I: Problem Specification and Current Conditions
3:45	Management Strategies and Tactics
4:15	Working through the Process II: Management Action Selection and Prioritization
5:00	Wrap-up, Housekeeping, and Mid-stream Evaluation
DAY 2
8:30	Registration and Continental Breakfast – Barnstable Room
9:00	Balancing Visitor Use and Resource Protection Needs on National Wildlife Refuges: A Case Study in Rhode Island Charles Vandemoer, Refuge Manager Rhode Island National Wildlife Refuge Complex, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service – Barnstable Room
9:30	Problem Awareness III: Prioritization of Local/Regional Issues
10:00	BREAK
10:15	Applying the Process I
12:15	LUNCH – Nauset Room
1:15	Applying the Process II – Barnstable Room
3:15	Wrap-up and Evaluations